

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

There will be some changes in our music department. Beginning the first of February, Brad Wilson will take over as director of music. Kristen Kosey will remain on staff as parish organist. Kristen has tirelessly provided music at every parish event in several capacities for the past 20 years. She will continue to assist by playing the piano and organ at all Masses. Please extend heartfelt thanks to Kristen for her directorship.

Bradley Wilson is a Tecumseh graduate and a 2008 alumnus of Wittenberg University where he obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business and Music. He has worked as a music director and organist for six years, serving in that capacity at St. Joseph Church and St. Adalbert Church in Dayton, as well as St. Paul Catholic Church in Yellow Springs. He has studied classical guitar at Wittenberg and with Jim McCutcheon of Dayton, organ with Ms. Trudy Faber, voice with the late Dr. Kenneth Scheffel and Dr. David Schubert; and conducting with Dr. Brandon Jones.

Brad's musical philosophy, as it pertains to his work in the Church, centers on the ars celebrandi, that is, the art of proper celebration of the liturgy. This can be accomplished by truly embracing the great patrimony of sacred music that has developed over the centuries, while at the same time utilizing only the best of modern compositions. Such an emphasis on the musical heritage of the Church can result in a harmonious, beautiful and transcendent liturgy; a liturgy that is faithful to the directives of the Second Vatican Council.

Abby Wilson will take over all her husband's responsibilities in the office of catechesis as its director. She is also a Tecumseh graduate and a 2010 alumnus of Wittenberg University where she obtained a Bachelors degree in Early Childhood Education. She has worked as a kindergarten teacher at St. Brigid Catholic Church in Xenia until making the decision to be a stay at home wife and mother. Over the past year, she has assisted her husband with the Catechism program at Sacred Heart. She has a deep passion for teaching the Catholic faith and is honored to be the Director of Youth Catechesis here at Sacred Heart.
