Dear Parishioners,

How should Catholics live out their faith?

Through their families, Catholic lay faithful make the most impact in the world, at the office and jobsite. They bring Jesus to the "marketplace." In addition, there are some lay parishioners who, in addition to making Christ present in the world, also directly assist in the governance of our parish, by serving on the Parish Council, for example.

Current members serving on this council are: Dave Leapley, who heads up everyone involved with music and lay ministry at Mass; Matt Prenatt, buildings and grounds; Abby Wilson, catechesis; and Ed Sherman, socials and community outreach.

There are also four at-large positions which need to be filled. Last weekend at our Masses, we nominated 27 people to serve on the Parish Council. We are in the process of contacting these nominees to ask if they would like to serve and be on the ballot. If you missed Mass last weekend, please contact the office with your nominations. We will vote next month.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Hummel

Custodial Ministry Needs More Teams

We need more teams of cleaners for the parish center and the church. The more teams we have, the less often a team is needed. Get a group of friends or family together and volunteer. All supplies are furnished and we have two new vacuums. For information, contact Jean Carter at 325-5393 or jencar@woh.rr.com

Coffee and Doughnuts will be served next Sunday in the parish center after the 9:00 a.m. Mass.

Tenebrae (A candlelight meditation on the seven last words of Christ) is 8:00 p.m. on Good Friday, April 18 — 7:00 on the Lent insert last week was incorrect. —
