 From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Offering the prayer of the Mass is among the most loving things we can do for someone, especially for one who has died in God's mercy. Outside of our Holy Father's investigation and declaration of Beatitude, only God alone knows when these souls are worthy enough to stand in the dazzling and heavenly beauty of God and his angels and saints. To read the Church's teachings on Purgatory, please read Rev 21:27, 1 John 5:16, 1 Peter 3:18, 2 Tim 1:16, I Cor 3:15, Matt 12:32, Matt 5:25, 2 Macc 12:46.

By "having a Mass celebrated" for a particular intention, we are asking God to apply His mercy to these souls who are in need of his grace. We don't forget those who are at rest. Jesus has conquered death. We pray for the souls of the faithful departed and ask them to pray for and to inspire us.

Although more may be given, $10 is the suggested donation for a Mass offering. If a person cannot make this donation, Sacred Heart will still be much honored to offer this intention at Mass.

Sincerely yours in the Lord,

Fr. Hummel

Rest in Peace

Please remember the soul of Sandra Lee Kenney and those who mourn her loss in your prayers. Her funeral Mass was Friday, August 22.

The family of Sandy Kenney would like to thank the parish for all they did to make the funeral for my sister, Sandy Kenney, a beautiful service. Father Hummel, Mary Yates, those who prepared food, all made us feel welcomed and loved. I will never forget the love you shared and I so appreciate what everyone did to make us comfortable and able to grieve. Thank you to all who made it such a religious occasion. —Pat and Dave Banaszak Rylan Patrick Wilson was baptized by Fr. Hummel on August 24 at 10:00 a.m. His parents are Abigail and Bradley Wilson. Rylan's godparents are Ashley and Tyler Wilson.

Thank you!

I want to thank Maria Peter, Mike and Wanda Engle, Dan and Janet Troth, and Leonard and Marge Nasta for putting together the reception held for me last weekend. I also want to thank all the people who came to thank me for the 21 years I worked as a weekly musician at Sacred Heart. It was amazing and humbling to see each person. Thank you, "saints of New Carlisle", for the blessing you have been to me and to my family. It is wonderful to see what God has done in us.—Kristen Kosey
